Sparkling Wine

Champagne

Made from a combination of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier grapes in the French region of Champagne. The most highly esteemed of all sparkling wine.

NV Paul Bara Grand Cru Réserve Brut, Bouzy Fr 160

2006 Gosset Grand Millésime, Épernay Fr 270

Other Sparkling Wines

2017 La Prova Prosecco, King Valley VIC 65

Prosecco is primarily made from the Glera grape, and its production is usually restricted to only a few select regions in Italy. Compared with Champagne, these wines carry a fuller texture and fruit whilst remaining quintessentially dry.

NV Schloss Gobelsburg Sekt Reserve, AUT 90

'Sekt' is a German term for sparkling wine. Its premium examples are often made through Methode Traditionale, and can include, as this wine does, Pinot Noir, Riesling, and Grüner Veltliner. Crisp, fruit forward, delicious.

NV Pike & Joyce Pinot Noir Rose, ADL Hills SA 70

From the second highest vineyards in the Adelaide Hills comes this stunner of a sparkling rose under the Pike and Joyce label. Beautifully crisp yet textural.

2016 Rafa Bernabe 'Acequion' Muscat de Alexandria Pet Nat, Alicante ESP 85

Riesling and Friends

Few beverages in the world can hold the esteem that the supremely aromatic Riesling has globally, and at all the spectrum's ends – in Germany and Austria, the wines that boast a purity and sweetness carried by a lick of structural acid and texture find themselves the most prized, where few Australian wine drinkers have grown without knowing the lazier-dry styles of the Clare.

2017 Celtic Farm 'Gaelic Cemetery' Riesling, Clare Valley SA 70

2018 Rieslingfreak 'No. 4' Riesling, Eden Valley SA 63

Winemaker John Hughes has set himself up a bit of a legendary reputation recently; after his 2017 'No. 3' Riesling took out every award it was eligible for in the 2017 Royal Sydney Wine Show, fans of Riesling have been eagerly awaiting his next release.

2017 Frankland Estate 'Poison Hill' Riesling, Frankland River WA 68

2015 Hirsch Riesling 'Zöbing,' Kamptal AUT 77

2017 Alzinger 'Mühlpoint' Grüner Veltliner Federspiel, Wachau AUT 92

A family winery on the banks of the Danube, the Alzingers work with the utmost respect for their environment and a minimal intervention philosophy in the vineyard. This 'Mühlpoint' Federspiel is a bracing playoff between classic Grüner spicyness and the regional minerality of which Wachau is known.

2011 Salomon Undhof 1er Cru 'Steiner Kogl' Riesling, Kremstal AUT 110

2018 Mada 'Blanc' PG/Gewurz/Riesling, Canberra District ACT 63

- 2015 Okonomierat Rebholz Riesling Trocken, Pfalz GER 98
From the third generation of the Rebholz family, pundits of Biodynamic Agriculture and pioneers of the idea of a more natural style of winemaking than Germany was used to. A true Trocken, super mineral and crisp, a true reflection of the terroir of the legendary Pfalz.
- 2017 M&A Arndorfer 'Vorgeschmack' Grüner/Riesling, Kamptal AUT 82
- 2017 Peter Lauer 'Faß 16' Riesling Trocken, Saar GER 87

- 2017 Peter Lauer 'Faß 13 – Saarfeilser' Grösses Gewachs Riesling, Saar GER 275
"Grösses Gewachs" is a German Riesling producer's version of a Grand Cru; in the case of Florian Lauer, his usual terroir-driven style is amplified here. The Saarfeilser exemplifies all this; somewhere between dry and off dry, but tremendous structure, power and balance.
- 2014 Ansgar Clusseräth Trittenheimer Apotheke Riesling Kabinett GER 82
- 2013 Rieslingfreak No. 8 'Schatzkammer' Riesling 73

If You Like Sauvignon Blanc

The Australian (and NZ) White Wine Industry's last 20 or so years have been built on the back of Sauvignon Blanc. As an entry into white wine, sure, Savvy B is a fine starting point; but now you're here, why not see what else is around?

Out of nearly 30-year old vines comes this Bordeaux-inspired blend from the Yarra Valley's famous Mount Mary winery. 100% open barrel fermented, this Sav/Semillon/Muscadelle blend spends time on skins, is stirred on lees and is barrel-aged for 11 months to create what is surely one of Australia's iconic white wines

For Lovers of Texture

The ways that white wine develops texture are myriad: oak, time spent on lees, fermentation techniques or indeed the varietal character from each grape will contribute to a broad mouth-feel and a long, satisfying finish.

The Big Boys

It's no secret that Australians like to drink big wines. From rich soils and loads of sunshine come rich sugars, rich flavours and big, high alcohol styles that has made Australian wine famous. As the Australian industry matures, the exploration of newer wine growing regions, and the observance of modern thinking towards wine making has ensured that what our wines make up in weight is not at the expense of complexity and finesse.

Whiskies from the Isles

The Scottish island style is greatly varied, but will commonly present a 'maritime' quality, a light saltiness on the palate, and often infused with the pleasant smoky qualities of peat.

Mainland Scotland

The largest of the Scottish whisky sub-regions, Highland and Speyside whiskies are generally full-bodied, rich and sweet. Rarely if ever smokey, often joyously aged in ex-sherry barrels to bring a variety of flavours, from dried fruits and spices to nuts, honey and caramel. The further south you travel, generally, you find whiskies lighter, grassier and more perfumed.

Tequila/Mezcal

Tequila and Mezcal are both a part of one big, happy family – made in Mexico from members of the Agave family, that's pretty much where the similarities end. Tequila, from the Blue Weber Agave, speaks of sweetness and soft fruit, whereas Mezcal, made from any member of the Agave family, presents mineral, faint smoke and earth.
